STREET NAMES DON'T JIBE VANDAL ACTIVE

STREET NAMES DON'T JIBE

SIMILARITY MAKES IT VERY DIFFICULT WHEN LOCATING PLACES; COUNCIL MAY TAKE ACTION

The conflict of names of many of the Richmond streets was brought before the council for attention, but as street improvement is now going on on several of them, immediate action was said to be impossible.

Mayor Garrard admitted that there were several cases which needed attention, and said that he was unable to say off hand just how many Richmond streets were in the city limits. Main and Main streets also came up for a fair share of discussion.

The attention of the council has been attracted several times to the matter, but owing to the contracts let for paving and improvement of the streets, it was decided to put the matter off until such time as they could get together and go into the matter of conflicting names thoroughly. Action in the near future is probable.

REMAINS ARE SHIPPED TO SACRAMENTO

The bodies of Mrs. Adelaide Grosser Garoutte, wife of James A. Garoutte, and her infant daughter were last night sent to Sacramento, where interment will take place form the Smallwood undertaking parlors. Mrs. Garoutte died Sunday afternoon at her home at 446 Nineteenth street, following the birth of the child. Deceased was a native of Sacramento and was 33 years of age. Garoutte is an employee of the Standard Oil company. The couple have lived in this city for the past six years.

William Kinney, an attendant at the hospital at San Quentin, was a Richmond visitor yesterday.

Survivors of Oregon Will Be Honored

Walter Matthews, one of the 33 survivors located of the 700 crew which manned the battleship Oregon during the Spanish-American war, may leave soon for a trip around the world.

A plan on foot, which has already been approved by government officials, is to outfit the famous battleship, which played an important part with the famous Atlantic fleet in Santiago harbor, and send it, with the survivors, for a trip around the world.

Pretty 'Phone Operator Is Bride

Becomes Wife of Son of Councilman Willis At Oakland Yesterday

Pretty Glen Gladys Pond became the bride of Ernest J. Willis, son of Councilman L. E. Willis, in Oakland yesterday afternoon. The ceremony was performed shortly after 4 o'clock by Judge Quinn of Oakland, but up to a late hour last night relatives of the principals did not know where or when the knot had been tied. Telegrams briefly announcing that they were man and wife were received.

A party of friends and relatives of the newlyweds set out to find out where the couple were located, and after much time in searching the hotels of Oakland, found them at the Hotel Oakland, where they proceeded to proclaim their joy with rice and such proverbial tokens of "bon voyage" on the matrimonial sea.

Miss Pond has been the chief night telephone operator in Richmond for many months, and was formerly chief operator at Riverside. She is well known in social and young people's circles.

Willis is an employee in the office of the Standard Oil company. His brother was married a few weeks ago.

The couple will celebrate their wedding on a honeymoon, and plan to return to a cozy cottage of their own in this city.

CITY WILL SAVE INTEREST ON BONDS

Discussing the means whereby the city might save the payment of unnecessary interest on municipal bonds, the city attorney, city treasurer and city auditor were ordered to invest any surplus money with Rollins & Sons, which will approximate $40,000. An offer to sell back the bonds temporarily was made by Rollins & Sons.

Just which funds not now in immediate demand will be used for the purpose is to be decided upon before action.

CONFINED TO APARTMENT WITH SEVERE ILLNESS

Mrs. J. P. Baker is confined to her apartment in the Carlton on North Street with severe illness. She is being attended by Dr. H. N. Hansen.

Some of Kaiser's Fighting Stars

GERMAN LANCERS.

A regiment of the crack cavalry men of the German Army, whose sorries have brought terror to the hearts of the people in the villages, towns and cities through which they have swept. The photo shows the regiment unmounted for a brief respite.

HUMANE SOCIETY MEETING'S TOPIC

Carlton Washburn, supervisor of teachers in the State Normal School at San Francisco, will preside over the mass meeting to discuss the situation of the humane society in the Lincoln school auditorium this evening.

Several members of the State Humane Society have been asked to speak. Dr. Phoebe of the University of California has been asked to speak on matters pertaining to the conduct of a humane society.

Mrs. Alice Park, well known leader in economic movements in the state, and a director of the state society, will speak.

A set of resolutions condemning the present conduct of the society will be discussed.

Claiming that the purpose of the society was not to create any hard feeling, but merely to take any necessary steps to secure a legally conducted society, members in charge of the meeting said last night that they would make special effort to have as many Richmond citizens present as possible, as the conduct of the society was of importance to them as taxpayers.

Carlton Washburn, although in one of the most responsible positions in educational work, is but a young man, and is considered a speaker of unusual talent, with a keen insight into present day problems.

Delegates May Be Appointed to Del Monte Gathering

That the city of Richmond may send several officials to attend the convention of municipal officials which will be held in October at Del Monte, Monterey county, was the opinion of several city officials yesterday. Many citizens are planning to attend. It is possible that some of the city officials will be appointed delegates.

In an interview yesterday, Mayor Garrard declared that he looked upon the convention as highly beneficial, and that the new ideas in municipal government and improvement were brought out by leaders.

Against city ordinances in Richmond and their origin at such conventions, and Richmond may follow the example of other cities by sending delegates to the convence.

MARRIAGE LICENSE TAKEN

A marriage license was issued in Oakland yesterday afternoon to Mark H. Parker to wed Mrs. Julia Cummings of 230 South Thirty-first street, this city.

SMALLWOODS ARE EXPECTED FROM THE NORTH TODAY

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Smallwood are expected home today from Europe.

Malicious Act Committed On Local Buildings

Windows of Stores are Cut and Slashed by Diamond; Police Department Is Working On Clues

What was evidently the malicious work of some person with a diamond ring was reported to the police yesterday by merchants and store owners from Tenth to Twenty-third streets, on Macdonald avenue, who claim that their plate glass windows are practically ruined from the deep scratches. The window of Jones & Addison, between Fifth and Sixth on Macdonald, was also cut and ruined.

The work is supposed to have been done Sunday, and although it is thought that it is that of some depraved person who has no value of property rights, no definite clues have been gleaned by the department.

An investigation will be made, and every effort put forth to find the cause of the extensive loss to the merchants.

RESURRECT OLD MATTER

The widening of Third street, which has been considered, reconsidered and occasionally acted upon by the city council for more than seven years, was resurrected last night with a view to settling the matter and taking steps to widen the street.

Attorney T. H. De Lap appeared for the commission which had charge of the condemnation proceedings and said that if the council would make the street 45 feet wide instead of 50, they could purchase one whole lot and 20 feet in another, and thus save themselves the expense of moving the old Union Hotel, which is tied up under an estate.

A resolution was passed asking that publicity be given the proposed step in order that property owners might voice their sentiments, and if satisfactory the street would be widened to 45 feet.

SPEAKER IN FAVOR OF PROHIBITION AMENDMENT

An open air meeting by proponents of the prohibition amendment, which will be decided upon this November ballot, was held last night in the corner of Seventh street and Macdonald avenue. The speakers quoted statistics and gave arguments in favor of the law. A fair sized crowd was present.

REFUSE A PROTEST; RESCIND ACTION

CITY DADS REFUSE TO SUSTAIN PROPERTY OWNERS; THEN TURN AROUND AND FOLLOW LEAD

What appeared to be an attempt to sustain a street improvement protest without giving the protestants the satisfaction of having their protest upheld was accomplished by the city council last night.

By overruling the protest of 25 property owners, who asked the council to give them a cheaper pavement than bitulithic, and then rescinding their original resolution ordering this kind of pavement, the council performed the work asked by the petitioners, and yet refused to sustain the protest.

Several reasons, which were considered hardly plausible by the petitioners, were given for the action, and after much discussion to find a way by which they could legally take the unusual action, the resolution calling for bitulithic pavement was finally rescinded.

E. B. Siegelman, Louis Zacher, Andrew Crothman, W. Burke and R. H. Hornbeck, were among the speakers who said that they did not believe it was the right thing to pave the street in front of cheap lots with an expensive material as was proposed.

Hornbeck charged the council with not using proper discretion and cited cases where street improvement assessments were too high. In his estimation, to correspond with the value of the lots. He mentioned an instance where the assessments were $750, which was more than the value of the lot. This statement was unchallenged by any of the councilmen.

In the semi-official discussion as to why the resolution of intention should be rescinded, the statement was made that it did not make much difference what action was taken, as it would be 90 days before work could be started. The contention was that after the lapse of time weather conditions would be such that street work could not be carried on, and would have to be carried on next March.

Pollett objected to the rescinding of the resolution, saying that it placed the council in a position of reversing itself.

Confessing that he moved that the street pavement work be done with Richmond Standard pavement, but this was lost in the mass of discussion, the motion overruling the protest passed and was followed by the motion to rescind.

As the action of the council delayed the beginning of expensive street improvement work, none of the protestants audibly voiced against its action, although like many others present, were much confused to find reason for the round about course of procedure.

IS THIS M. M. & E. PLOT?

Has discovery by Harrison of the "M. M. & E." plot been a coincidence? The supply of the M. M. & E. plot had considerable on his present case, which has been only one of the many cases over the Pacific coast, and which is expected to be a big piece of work had been cut out.

The man who was the head of the M. M. & E. plot was shot shortly after the discovery of the cache at San Francisco.

and as he entered the railroad station was arrested and his suit case containing explosives and a revolver, which he carried, were taken from him.

This is the opinion of many of the authorities. The large quantity of explosives would lead to the conclusion that a big piece of work had been cut out.

Assistant District Attorney Orme said yesterday that it was looked upon by some as a "plant" on the part of the M. M. & E. to cause trouble for some one.

Although there are many clues which may work out to the discovery of the true state of affairs, Attorney Thomas Johnson and others who have made investigation of the matter were unable to give any reason for the three links in the peculiar chain of evidence now in hand unless it were the intention to make things look black for some innocent party.

WHIPPING CHILDREN

The Daily News is in receipt of an open letter from Mrs. Alice Park, a member of the State Humane Society, and well known writer and lecturer on social and economic questions.

Space prohibits printing the entire letter, but in part it is as follows: An Open Letter to Parents:

"Slapping, spanking and whipping children are very common. In more barbarous times, these practices were universal. In our day, inquiry proves that most parents believe they have a right to strike children, especially small children. When punishments are known to be extremely severe neighbors and officers sometimes interfere in behalf of the victims. For one such case which becomes public, there are hundreds where the parent is sole judge and witness, and there is no court of appeal.

"Consider the difference in size between a parent and a young child. If a giant ten or twelve feet tall stood over a man or woman and dealt out blows for infractions of giant-made rules, the parent might realize what he now does to children. He probably does not know either the pain, the physical injury, the nervous shock, the mental effects, nor the effects upon the other children in the family. The effect upon the mother or father is another subject.

"The pain is greater than a grown person realizes. The injury to the heart is sometimes permanent. Spanking and whipping stimulate the organs of sex. The nervous effects are such that the same child frequently offends again within an hour. Feelings of bitterness, hatred, and even revenge, rankle in the heart of the child. The fear engendered in the mind of the victim and of the other children is wholly bad. Parental control that is wise and good cultivates a child's self-respect, as well as respect of parents. Whipping is destructive of self-respect. In some ways, this is its worst result.

"Children who have been asked how they felt after being spanked or whipped, have said that it made them want to hit somebody, anybody. Since they didn't dare hit their mothers or fathers, they had a strong impulse to hit other children, or to kick the dog or the cat.

"The faults of little children are largely the results of ignorance, accident, and the forgetfulness of immature minds, on the one side, or the far-off adult point of view, on the other. Grown persons would justly resent corporal punishment visited upon them for ignorance, accident or an unknown point of view.

"Slapping, spanking or whipping children cannot be defended. They have been universal. They are now common. They are seldom discussed. Possibly shame prevents parents from talking about this important subject. It is time the practice was discussed openly.

"Children cannot defend themselves. Teachers and parents who have a high standard of conduct, should speak and write in strong terms condemning the corporal punishment of children.

"Parents and teachers who approve or condone the whipping of children should study both physiology and psychology.

RUBBISH AND FIRE RISKS

When a city annually expends thousands of dollars in the fighting of fires, it is no more than reasonable that the property owner should take what precautions are within his power to keep down the fire risk of a city.

The problem of keeping a city free from unnecessary fire hazards is one of grave importance.

The local fire department has encountered a tendency on the part of property owners to permit dry weeds and inflammable rubbish to gather on vacant lots and near buildings, in conflict with city ordinances.

If the fact that such negligence is unlawful, and in spite of the fact that by violating the city's rules, the owner is needlessly exposing his own property to destruction by fire, there is another reason why the matter should be given serious attention.

It is not right that the whole city should contribute towards the upkeep of a fire department, and assist in the expenses, when persons, simply from negligence and carelessness, allow the cost of a fire department to rise unnecessarily.

There is a city ordinance prohibiting dry weeds and inflammable material from accumulating on property. There is a moral and financial reason aplenty for the property owner obeying the ordinance.

It should not be necessary for a fire chief to be compelled to be continually warning property owners to keep their premises clear.

OPEN FORUM

Martinez, Cal., Sept. 28, 1914.

Editor Daily News, Richmond, Cal.—Dear Sir: Because of the fact that I was a member of the Republican State Convention and am a member of the Republican State Central Committee, and because I, from time to time, may have made remarks to friends concerning the attractive personality of Captain Fredericks, the Republican nominee for governor, I am supporting Captain Fredericks in his present campaign for governor. I desire, therefore, that you publicly state for me that I am not supporting Captain Fredericks for governor.

During the short time that I have known Captain Fredericks I have been very much impressed by his personality and his diplomatic ability in general. But some of his past acts and the great anxiety and determination of the reactionary elements in California politics to elect Fredericks as governor are sufficient to prevent the giving to him of support by those of us who have been assisting in the fight to have the real wishes of the rank and file of our citizens recognized as of first importance in public affairs rather than the wishes of special interests.

This coming election is of particular importance to every person in California. Voters should give all candidates and their records a fair and attentive hearing, keep on guard to help defeat unfair political tricks, then go home and think it all over. Look back of what has been said and what has been left unsaid—look to the sincerity of the candidates and then on November 3 go to the polls and vote for the man for office whom you honestly believe will more nearly represent the people of the state of California and is less likely to represent the particular demands of special interests and special privilege.

Very truly,
RALPH H. WIGHT.

Where did the progressive planks in the Progressive, Republican and Democratic parties originate? We can say that they, without exception, originated and belong to the Socialist platform and ideas, and Socialists are glad and proud of that. Their other ideas are also. We want to do away with war. That is nothing but international anarchy in its fullest force; class struggle that now exists in its fullest degree; monarchies with its dangers to the public welfare; aristocracy with all its evils; minorities and capitalist rule with graft, money, power and numberless tyrannies and inhuman acts; interest, rent and profit, consequently against saloons, gambling and red light resorts, which are run for profit. In one word, we are against all that is wrong and bad, and on the other side we are for all that is good, noble and sublime.

We want national and international republicanism or democracy in its fullest brotherhood between people and nations, true and enlightened civilization, where love will rule supreme with all its blessings and happiness. We want equal rights to opportunities and equal rights to our mother earth, from which we all get our sustenance. We want all families to have their rights and opportunities to build their own homes on it. We want public and municipal ownership of all that we need for common use, such as railroads, telegraph and telephone systems, water facilities, coal, oil, etc., and private ownership of all that we earn with our own work.

Ours is the original of the old age pension law, the employers' liability law, accident insurance, arbitration in labor and international disputes, and the eight hour law. We advocate human rights over property rights, favor prohibiting judges from issuing injunctions in labor disputes, abolishing the property qualifications for jurors, favor health protection for men handling cement, and that state and nation to provide public work for the unemployed, and against letting out public work by contract. We are for a minimum wage law. Ours is the law of initiative and referendum, and the recall of judges; laws for better protection for workers in factories, mines and for seamen, etc. We want to make heaven on earth as far as possible. We consider the working people to be the majority, and their will and wish to be the law, as they are the producers of all wealth. They are the backbone and strength of the nation and their welfare is the welfare of the nation.

The Socialist party is the working people's party on both the political and industrial fields, in politics and industries at action. These are our principles and ideas and it is no wonder that the capitalists call us dreamers. But when the working people of the world have awakened to these facts and unite and stick together, the dream will come to pass. But they say that Socialism is impractical. If so, good is impractical, but if good is impractical then only bad is practical.

What a pitiful civilization this is! The civilization of today is not the survival of the fittest, but the survival of the shrewdest, the crookedest. No wonder that we have wars, and private and national anarchy. But oh how my heart longs for an early dawning of a day of brotherhood, righteousness, peace and good will on our earth.

Respectfully yours, J. O. W.

MILK IS ABOVE GRADE

REPORT OF COMMISSIONER OF HEALTH SHOWS FINE CONDITIONS HERE

That the quality and cleanliness of milk supplied to the various hotels and restaurants in the city is of a better grade than in many previous months, is shown by the report from City Health Commissioner Dr. Chas. R. Blake.

But one dairy was reported to have unclean milk. Skimmed milk was reported from only one restaurant.

Seven of twenty-one samples were reported very good, while all but a few were reported good or fair.

The per cent of fat was above standard requirements in many cases, and not far below in any way. The Richmond Creamery reported a percentage of 6.0 fat, against a standard requirement of 3.2.

DON'T BLAME THE STREET FAKER

Don't blame the street faker if he sells more goods in half an hour than you sell in a month. A street vender comes to town, opens up his pack, spends half an hour advertising his stock orally, aided with a few sleight-of-hand tricks, a colored comedian, or a little slow music, and then proceeds to sell to your customers the very same goods you have had in your store for a month or more. This ought to prove to you that you don't make enough noise with your advertising. Make your advertising better than the faker's and keep your customers so stocked up that the street vender will find no market for his wares.

When a Swedish actress was taken for a German spy in Paris and surrounded by a threatening mob a lucky idea occurred to her. Raising her skirt so her dainty little feet showed, she shouted, "Look at these? Do you call these feet German?" The crowd was so impressed by her alibi it carried her in triumph to her hotel.

"Tales of a Million Dollars"

The Man Who Threw Away $210

Eighteen months ago Burg Bros., Inc., sold lot 27, block 17, in the Nicholl-Macdonald Ave. Business Center Tract in Richmond for $1250—$125 down and $10 a month.

After the original purchaser had made payments for 14 months he began to get nervous. Result—he sold it for $2000, making a profit to him of $7.50 on an investment of but $265 in cash.

But—here's the moral: If he had NOT sold it, he would have made $250 MORE PROFIT—and would have paid out only $40 more cash—for the lot sold again September 1 to one of Richmond's ex-officials for $2350.

He literally threw away $210 in four months by selling his lot too soon.

Do you see what we mean?

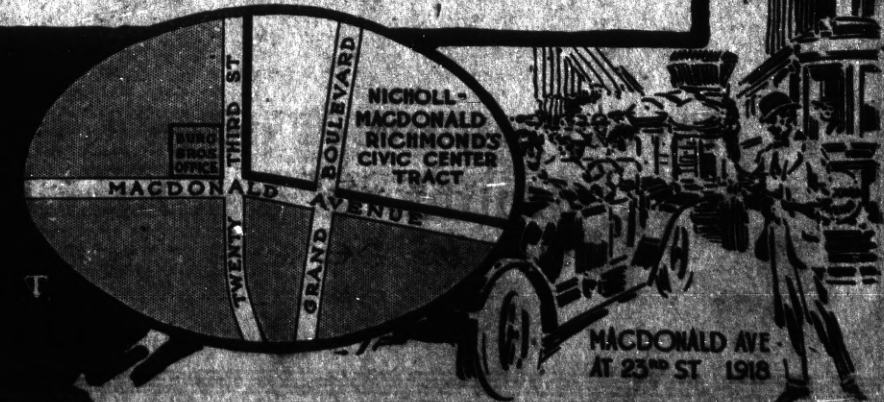

Richmond's property is increasing in value faster right now—for didn't this lot increase the most during these last four months?

That is why we say

2700 CLUB DISCUSSES REORGANIZATION: MAY BE SETTLED SUNDAY

The 2700 Club met at Labor Tem-

There being no other business to come before the body, the matter of reorganization was brought up and after two hours of earnest debate upon the different phases of the matter it was laid over to a special order of business for the next meeting which will be held next Sunday at 10 a. m.

All members who are interested in the welfare of the club are requested to be there for the matter is of vital importance and should not be slighted by any person who has the welfare of the labor movement

THEY'RE OFF IN GREAT CONTEST

Four candidates for the prize to be awarded the lucky "jinx" of the Elk club were nominated yesterday by local amateur Sherlock Gucks. The first name to be received was that of James Nabett, a local architect.
Hardly had this nomination received the official once over of the "Jinx" editor when a tiny army up before the office and began unloading. The "Jinx" editor grabbed three nominations from the stack, which divulged the following names: Robert Gruenhagen, a local plumber; Artie Davis and George Cheney, foreman of the pump works at the Standard Oil works.

All of the contributors failed to state the reasons for their choice, so it looks like they were disqualified.
However, there is yet a chance that some one will drop in with the necessary dope.

To Reorganize Local Volunteer Firemen

The city auditor was instructed by the council to draw a warrant for $360 to be used in fitting the old Standard avenue school house for social rooms for the Richmond Volunteer Fire Veterans' Association. The matter has been pending for many weeks.

Another resolution dissolving the Volunteer fire departments, including Winhaven, was adopted.

A meeting will be held tonight in the council chambers for the organization of the Volunteer Firemen Veterans' Association as a permanent organization. Officers will be elected, and plans for the future considered. All volunteer firemen were asked to attend by those who will be in charge of the meeting.

The matter of fire protection for Winhaven came up for discussion by the council, following the adoption of the resolution which dissolved the volunteers companies. The council decided that they could make an occasional donation, and at the same time eliminate the expense to the city of carrying liability insurance for the men, which is already carried by the California Wine Association.

ADS ARE POPULAR READING.

A newspaper's information is so varied it contains news to suit everyone. Some years ago a person who read the ads in a newspaper or magazine was considered odd, and it is true the ads were crude, the articles advertised often being out of season or of a style and texture entirely out of fashion. But now it is different. Advertising furnishes the most interesting reading matter in the newspaper. It is instructive, teaching the public how to reduce the cost of living and at the same time get the best standard goods. If you don't already read ads—get the habit—it's a liberal education.

POINTERS DEFEAT FAST OAKLAND TEAM

One of the best games seen in amateur baseball locally for several months past was that staged by the Point Athletes and the Carroll team of Allendale, on the Lang park grounds, Sunday afternoon. The well played fracas ended in a 3 to 2 victory for the locals and the game had to go ten innings before the charmed number could be rung up by either side. Stone and Schram did the strong arm work for the Pointers and allowed but two hits to the invaders, while their supporters succeeded in glomming six hits from the twirling of the Allendale slabster.

ANNUAL BALL OF POLICE NOT TO BE HELD

Resulting from arguments advanced by Chief of Police Walker, and supported by the force at the regular monthly meeting of the police officers yesterday, it was decided that the policeman's ball would be omitted from the calendar of coming events this year.

fostering concerted action for world peace," said Donehaud.

Referring to "accrued reports of cruelties perpetrated by some Mexican authorities on defenseless priests and nuns," President Donehaud said, "the federation must raise its indignant protest at this inhuman persecution and respectfully request the government to secure full explanation and reparation for the indignities and atrocities committed and for property losses."

POP DID IT

AS A PITCHER ARLETT IS CANDY AND SWEET AT THAT

"Pop" Arlett is now a sure enough Elk. He proved to the satisfaction of local fandom Sunday afternoon that he has the qualifications of a classy twirler, and also brought much joy to the hearts of the management of the club. In Sunday afternoon's match with the St. Mary's College club the local boys pulled home a 3 to 0 winner. Arlett was in wonderful form. But two hits, and those of no consequence, were garnered off his delivery by the collegians, who are considered one of the hardest hitting clubs in the bay region.

Fourteen of the college boys were sent back to the bench via the strike out route, while not one of the visitors succeeded in getting within hailing distance of the three-quarter mark. From a Richmond standpoint the game was a mighty classy affair. Not only did "Pop" pitch rings around the collegians, but he showed to the satisfaction of the assembled throng that he could field his position as classy as could be wished. But "Pop" wasn't the only pleasant surprise of the afternoon. Nay not so, brother, say not so.

Smith at shortstop was the other new man in the lineup who caused a wave of joy to run along the spinal col. of the local bugs. Not to say anything derogatory of Childs' work, but Smith sure did hang around short like a hero, and it certainly was a mighty lucky thing for we 'uns that the Midget piled into the college uniform. Smith garnered two safeties out of three chances and did not make an error. He handled himself as if he knew what he was about, too, and his work on the bases was class personified.

The local management intends hanging on to Smith. Childs will also be in the local lineup, although just where the two lads will be splattered has not yet been decided. D. Arlett, a brother to the illustrious "Pop," gave a nice exhibition in center field. The other members of the team showed up fine and with Gordon and Arlett working, it looks like the Elks are pretty near a cinch for the semi-pro title of the state.

PETALUMA GETS A TASTE OF OWN MEDICINE; WINE BOYS CONFIDENT; GOSSIP

Petaluma received a dose of its own medicine Sunday. The henery boys were defeated by a homer with the bases clogged by Murray. Cy Parkin worked for San Rafael, while Hollis was on the mound for the Hen Town boys. Manager Healey's pocketbook is feeling kind of light, but the old boy is ready to place the wad on his hopes in their match with the Elks on the 11th.

Hits and errors for the match were divided as follows: San Rafael, 6, 8, 1; Petaluma, 4, 13, 2.

Winehaven is warming up for the opening of the midwinter league next month. The club is confident of taking the "got-you" sign on the league pennant and intend to go right after it with the drop of the flag. In Pinkerton and Penny, a southpaw, the Calwa boys have as classy a pair of hurlers as are lurking about the bushes. Both are reliable twirlers and should hold the team at the top. The other members of the club are as rifty a crew as one could wish for.

Scorekeeper McCauley is slightly indisposed. His scribbling mitt is about all in as the result of Sunday's Winehaven-Outlaw match.

The Elks scored two of their tallies in Sunday's match on a fluke. A pop fly to center was misjudged and two of the local boys ambled home without any disturbance.

One of the snappiest bingles of the whole struggle was that made by a young local, "Baldy" Marcolla, who was playing his first game with the Collegians. It was a low, ripping souse through Hyatt at second, and netted him an easy base. However, this service to the St. Mary's nine was overshadowed by the flop he made of a fly in right field, which netted Richmond's last two runs.

'TIS A MERRY GAME; THIS NATIONAL SPORT OF OURS

Winehaven kicked Cheek's Outlaws in the ribs, walked all over their physiognomies and ended the celebration by making a general massacre of the job. It happened Sunday afternoon and the pasturage where the slaughter took place is still saturated with the blood of the Outlaw tribe. The score, if it could be classed as such a thing, was: Winehaven, 20; Outlaws, 6. According to Winehaven players the Outlaws were fortunate to even get six. However, we will not argue that point. Nineteen healthy bingles were garnered off the delivery of Bradley, while his team mates piled up four miscues. It was a merry afternoon for the Outlaw fielders. "Happicus" Bradley tried hard to stem the rush of the Wine city boys and an even dozen of the Wine boys took the count on strikes.

Pinkerton was in classy form, and but five diminutive hits were secured from his offerings. Pinky also morgued an even dozen.

The Wine boys are as happy as a bunch of larks. They now want to play the Elks, and if the Elks refuse to meet them they are going after some minor club, possibly Martinez.

Scorekeeper H. McCauley has compiled the following list of statistics for the edification of the nuts:

WE'LL SEE WHO IS BACK ON JOB AT COUNTY SEAT

MARTINEZ, Sept. 28.—The baseball spirit, which has been enjoying a long nap, is beginning to awaken. Yesterday, the village is getting real hot-up over the performances of their heroes. Sunday's defeat of Concord by the score of 5 to 2 has brought old Baseball Spirit back on the job. Of course, the old boy is badly bent and shows signs of rough wear, but just the same he's back. "Bill" Toser, a Coast league twirler, was more fortunate than the famous Harkness was in his battle with the Elks. Local fans are hoping that the management of the club here doesn't get huffy and try to land a game with the Elks. They realize what will happen.

SPORT GOSSIP

IF THE BOSTON BRAVES take two games this week they will clinch the National League pennant. There is little likelihood that they don't turn the trick, and it is a pretty sure bet that Boston will be the National League contender for the world's championship.

ELMER MARTINONI of Portland is the star twirler of the Coast League. Martinoni, who was discarded by the Oaks, has won 9 and lost 2. His percentage is .518.

THE KILBANE-ATTELL scrap, scheduled for November 20, has been called off, Johnny refusing to put up for the change.

MERCHANTS PUT ONE OVER ON PINOLE

A 5 to 3 victory over the Pinole Club was chalked by the Richmond Merchants Sunday morning. Howe and Stalker were the batting stars of the match. The Merchants lined up as follows: Rolling, pitcher; Washburn, catcher; Andrew Hansen, first; Howe, second; Stalker, third; Jones, left; Centers, center; Roy Hansen, right; and Hellwig, short.

The score: R. H. E. Merchants 5 3 4 Pinole 3 4 1

The box score for Sunday's match is as follows:

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES BY SCOOP

Weeks of steady, consistent practice on the part of the girl basketball aspirants have developed some excellent players. Despite the brilliant record established by the basketball team of 1913, this year has brought forth such material that an even higher mark is expected by the coaches and those who have seen the daily practices of the fifteen to twenty-five aspirants.

Thursday afternoon will see the first test, a match game with Miss Head's school of Berkeley, will be played in the college town. Picking of a team from the dozens or more equally excellent players has been a hard job for Captain Anita Kreuger, but all but one have been named and the nine that will defend the honor of the school against Mrs. Head's school will be as follows:

Forwards—Capt. Anita Kreuger, Ethel Hall and Maryanna Mount; guards—Ruth Long, Edith Adams and Jennie Moore; center—Vera Lautenschlagore, touch; Evelyn Robertson, side.

Who the other side parts will be is a question which the captain has not as yet decided, and one that is hotly contested by several almost equally capable aspirants.

To ascertain whether or not the play by which Livermore obtained two of her three goals in the Pleasanton game Saturday was fair or not, Captain Brown and Lawrence Cameron made a trip to the University of California yesterday afternoon to see Coach Schaefer on the debated point.

Schaefer's opinion was that the point was within the Rugby rules, and that Livermore was perfectly right in making the play and that a protest on that point would not stand.

An opinion from such an eminent football authority practically settles the disputed point, and also provides a good trick which may be used by the local team in future playing.

Tomorrow afternoon the local fifteen will line up against the second team of Berkeley high for the second time. The game will be played for much needed practice, and as the first game went to a 0 to 0 tie, it promises to be a good scrap.

The game will be played on the Grove and Bancroft grounds, opposite the Washington school, in the varsity clay. The grounds there are in very fair condition and being centrally located the game would attract a large crowd.

Walter Hoffman and Clarence Cain, unofficial delegates to the state convention of the California Inter-school Federation, at Sacramento, returned to school yesterday morning with a glowing account of their experiences in the Capital city.

The "Pilgrim's Progress" will be presented at the Lincoln school Friday, October 2. The school has been exceptionally fortunate in securing the company to present such a picture, and on such a basis that the school will be able to benefit itself financially as well as educationally.

The picture is produced at a cost of $30,000 by the Ambrosia company, at their studios in Torino, Italy. Famous artists of Europe were secured to act the leading parts. The famous allegory was written in the Bedford jail over 250 years ago.

The picture has had some long and popular runs in different coast cities, including thirty-nine nights in Portland, twenty-six in San Francisco and twenty in Los Angeles.

An afternoon performance for the grammar school children will be given, and the evening performance for adults promises to be well attended.

More and more do the members of the football team realize how they should have won the game against Livermore Saturday. After the first goal they seemed over-confident, and when they were soon after routed by the Livermore squad, they seemed unable to summon any "pep" and were swept from their feet.

The purpose of the defeat served were to show the players that stricter training rules must be observed by the team members, more real digging must be pursued in the practices and a more general concentration of the entire team on the game of football and its playing is necessary.

It is hoped that the team will take a firmer grip on itself and will in the future win a few of the games which their really excellent team work and hard playing should net them. If they do not succeed in taking Saturday's game against Centerville, they will be out of the league for this year, for their remaining opponent, Hayward, has already lost one game to the fast Centerville aggregation.

BAN ON COHN SLAUGHTER HOUSE IS LIFTED

Following action taken by the Richmond Health Department, in an effort to secure more sanitary conditions in the slaughter house operated by Max Cohn, near the county line, Sanitary Inspector Homer E. Wyatt reported yesterday that cattle killed there could now be sold to local butchers.

Although Berkeley officers attempted to secure better conditions without aid, Wyatt said that the slaughter house showed a willingness to cooperate with the local health department, and was now operating a sanitary killing house.

Concrete floors have been laid, and separate killing rooms, built according to sanitation standards, have been installed.

Wyatt ordered, several weeks ago, that no meat should be sold in this city until a change had been made, and condemned all meat in local shops which was killed under unsanitary conditions.

LOCAL FAMILY TO ENTER POULTRY BUSINESS

M. C. Fulton and family, for nine years residents of this city, are moving to Petaluma, where they are going into the poultry business. The family left yesterday for their new home. Fulton, who is an employee of the Standard Oil company, with which concern he has been connected for the past six years, will not leave for Petaluma until November. The Fultons have a fine poultry farm, which they received in trade for their local home.

IMPRESSIVE RITES OVER EXPLOSION VICTIMS

Impressive services over the remains of Seid, Allah and Taza Khan, the two Mohammedans killed in an explosion in the loading house of the California Cap Works Friday afternoon, were held Sunday at the Smallwood undertaking parlors. Yesterday morning two separate services were said. M. Barakatullah, editor and proprietor of the Islamic Fraternity, and an official in the School of Foreign Languages of Tokyo, Japan, was the speaker in one instance, while Fuzal Ahmad was the other speaker.

Interment was in Sunset View cemetery.

COPIES OF FIRE ORDINANCE TO BE MAILED TO VIOLATORS

To promote a better understanding of the city ordinance regulating the growth of dry weeds on city lots, Fire Chief Le Moine yesterday received copies of the city laws, which he will mail to several who are violating the ordinance.

Section 3 of ordinance 278 provides that it shall be unlawful for any owner or occupant of property within the city limits to permit any weeds, dry grass or other rubbish or litter of inflammable material on the lots, and requires that they be kept clean of the lots.

Violators are liable to a fine not exceeding $100 and 60 days' imprisonment.

Le Moine said that violating the ordinance greatly increased the fire hazards of the city, and that it was not fair to the taxpayers to put the fire department to needless expense.

DISCUSS PLANS FOR 2-DAY OCTOBER FAIR

Plans for the two-day fair of the Richmond club, to be held October 8 and 9 in the new quarters of the organization on Nevin avenue, were discussed at a meeting yesterday afternoon in the Library. Committees in charge of the various booths reported everything as progressing in fine shape and indications point to a record-breaking attendance. At yesterday's gathering, following the business session, the members spent the afternoon in sewing. Various articles of wear were completed. Tomorrow evening the club will give a whist party in the new quarters. It is anticipated that fully 75 tables will be in action.

USES CLAIM OF BEING "LEPER" TO GET COIN

Jose Ravana, claiming to be a leper, was brought back to Richmond yesterday, following an examination by county officials at Martinez. It was announced by Assistant District Attorney A. S. Ormsby that the man was "sincerely" suffering from eczema, and had been traveling from city to city, working up sympathy for a disease which he did not have. Ravana is a Mexican, and applied to the county hospital for aid. It would have been necessary to build separate and isolated quarters for him. It was found out that he was not a citizen of the United States, nor a resident of the county, and the advice of the district attorney was asked before taking further steps. Following the investigation, he was turned loose, and returned to Richmond yesterday. According to a statement of Martinez officials, the man had been, in their opinion, playing upon the sympathy and fear of the terrible disease to get money to live on. They were satisfied that he suffered nothing more than eczema in a bad form, and called in medical testimony to substantiate their theory.

"DADS" TO INVESTIGATE REMODELLING OF "VIM"

The application of Louis Kesser, owner of the Vim theater building, near Fifth street on Macdonald avenue, for a special permit to remodel his building for use as a store brought out a somewhat heated discussion between Councilmen Ludwig and Follett. Follett claimed that the building committee had once ruled against the granting of the license, and asked the council whether or not the findings of the committee were to be obeyed.

Ludwig said that the building committee had allowed a greater fire risk to be remodeled from a lunch counter to a restaurant 25 feet from the Vim theater. He claimed that where only a gas flame had been used before the building committee had permitted the installation of a range four by eight feet. He said that it was not fair to Kesser to allow the greater fire hazard and refuse remodeling of a store from a vacant and unoccupied theater building.

After much debate on the rights of a property owner, and of the building committee in making exceptions to an ordinance in one case and refusing in another, it was decided to leave the matter in the hands of the council as a special committee, and an investigation was ordered for Sunday morning at 10 o'clock.

HOTTINGER BOY IS AGAIN IN HOSPITAL

Little Clifford Hottinger whose afflictions have appealed to the public for the past eight months was committed to the children's hospital at San Francisco Sunday evening. The abscess which it is said developed from an injury and caused the trouble, and which, it was hoped had healed, has again broken out in a running sore.

At this time the report from the hospital of the result of the doctors' examination has not been received by the committee.

Planning Commission For City Is In The Air

The much talked of city planning ordinance, creating a body to consider all matters relating to civic improvement of streets, parks, etc., and which was considered by many to be one of the greatest steps in advancement that the city could take, was put over for further consideration, following criticisms from Councilman Follett.

Follett proposed to cut the number from seven to five, and claimed that the proposed commission would have too much power.

Although a legal question whether or not the council could delegate any of its powers to such a commission did not come up, it was claimed that the planning commission would be called upon to act in some cases in jurisdiction under the council.

The commission has power to employ engineers when necessary to report on engineering projects, and Follett objected, saying that the council might not want to pay the engineer. He said a "mixup" was likely to follow. None of the councilmen raised a protest to the postponement of the passage of the bill.
